

6118. (Supplement to Notice of Judgment 4980). Adulteration and misbranding of fluid extract of cinchona. U. S. * * * v. G. F. Harvey Co., a corporation. Decision of the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, affirming judgment of conviction in the lower court. (F. & D. No. 5388. I. S. No. 1649-e.)

On April 14, 1917, in pursuance of the appeal of the G. F. Harvey Co., plaintiff in error, upon the judgment and conviction in the District Court of the United States for the Northern District of New York, upon an information against said plaintiff in error, involving the interstate shipment by said company, in violation of the Food and Drugs Act, of a quantity of an article labeled in part, "Fluid Extract Cinchona," which was adulterated and misbranded, there was filed in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit a transcript of the record of the proceedings in said case, and thereafter on January 16, 1918, the case having come on for final disposition, the judgment of conviction in the lower court was affirmed, per curiam. On January 30, 1918, the mandate of said Circuit Court of Appeals to the District Court of the United States for the Northern District of New York was issued, and all papers were returned to said district court for further proceedings in conformity with the judgment of the Court of Appeals.
